

Food and Beverage Manager

We are growing! This means we are looking to add to our leadership team immediately. Do you have a strong work ethic and a “let’s get it done” attitude? Do you have leadership experience? Do you have experience working in the Foodservice or hospitality industry? Do you have organizational skills with an eye towards details? If so, we want to talk to you.

We are looking for a Food & Beverage Manager to equip our food production teams. The primary responsibility in this role is to give leadership to the Cannery Kitchen, the Cafe, the Old Brick Press as well as seasonal outlets. This is done primarily through:

- Establishing work schedules, maintaining staffing levels to meet production quotas.
- Planning and overseeing production as well as monitoring quality to provide excellent customer service.
- Assigning and delegating tasks, while also working alongside the team on the floor in the kitchen.
- Engaging and retaining team members through initial training and ongoing development, performance management & recognition of goals achieved.
- Ordering and inventory control through accurate record keeping within the department.
- Thorough communication within the leadership team and with those under your leadership, helping to troubleshoot issues and resolve conflicts.
- Ensuring Food Safe standards are upheld.

Experience in food production/service is an asset, however not a deal breaker. More important are good organization and time management skills. At Davison Orchards we believe that a great attitude is the foundation for success. If you feel that you are the right person for the job please send us your resume and cover letter describing why you feel you’re the right candidate. Come and be a part of an energetic and inclusive team where we work together to have fun and achieve our goals. If you are this positive individual, we would love to hear from you. Apply now!
